Arena.

Special to the News.

La grippe is causing terror in this part.

Mr. A. Bryant has quit cutting saw logs and has gone to plowing.

W. E. Kilgore is now working at the new mill.

Mr. A. J. Layne tied his hillside land with a wild grape vine to keep it from slipping off and he has not loosed it yet for fear of another flood.

Jas. Caldwell is also looking for s flood for he is building a tower. I have not learned the name yet.

Uncle Thos. Brown is very low and is not expected to survive many days. Wm. Wilkerson is afraid to go into the woods on account or the ticks as they made him take a tree once. They are numerous. Miss Ocpha Higgins, who has had pneumonia fover at Mr. A. J. Layne's, is some better at this writing. That was a pretty good one about frogs, but it don't beat the man that lost his horse and wagon on the big road and went in home with them.

Little Sequaches seems to be on a boom. More saw mills and more work. Mr. Jas. Dove, of the Gizzard Cove was visiting his son, Jas. Dove, Jr., this week. Tirree Anderson, of the Gizzard was at the new mill looking for work yes-

Mr. John Layne from Tracy City, passed through the Cove yesterday.

Mr. Sullivan and family, of South Pittsburg, have moved to the new mill.

COPPINGER COVE. Special to the News.

Thomes Killgore and family have returned from across the mountain.

J. W. Brown and Jim Bible took a drove of mules to the mountain this week.

Coppinger Bros. have got another car of corn and are now hauling it away. Austin says that freight is devilish high on this railroad since they have had pay $70 for the shipment of two cars from Bass,

Will Coppinger, of the Fork, was down Sunday after his cow.

Mr. W. C. Hill was in the cove horseback riding Sunday.

Uncle Bob came out of the Fork Saturday a little stuck up since he nas been boss three days,

Mrs. J. T. Smith, of Whiteside, was visiting home folks Saturday and Sunday, returning home Mon-Journal by which we can send THE day morning accompanied by Sam

> Austin Coppinger went up on Battle Creek last week and purchased a fine yoke of oxen. He said he found all of his kinfolks well except his brother-in-law, Eli jah Tate, who had a serious casof the itch. Austin was so afraid that he would catch it that he was about to leave at once but his sister agreed to put two clean sheets on the bed if he would stay, and after some time Austin consented to stay as it was raining very hard.

W. H. Ta e and wite were in the cove Sunday.

Ingersoil Jones who is just out of the Normal school of Fountain City is in the cove this week. He isgoing to work for Farris and Co

I guess we will have some good oads in the Cove after they get through hauling mills, lumber and corn over them. When this last mill gets up here maybe some of those fellows will get work who have been inquiring the way to Peter Cave Fork. This word is in nearly every man's mouth you

Uncle Millard Francis will have some trying work now since it is bee swarming time. He has nearly a hundred stands.

Harve Carnes has been living in Dixon Cove over three years and has made his little hillsides do their hest in the way of producing vegetables. He is making one of the nicest little places in the county. He and his wife are enjoying good health now.
